Course Description:

To learn catechism and its application to real life in a way that will relate to the life and times of current high school youth. And along the way, help students to fall in love with and develop a deep relationship for Jesus Christ.

To focus in a special way this academic year on God's call and igniting the students' 'yes' to His will and mission.

Course Goals and Objectives:

This course seeks to enable the student

1. To develop and nurture a deep personal relationship with Christ.
2. To emerge from this course with a greatly enhanced understanding of Christ and his invitation to bring the Gospel message to the world, meet the challenge of extending Christ's kingdom and share in the responsibility of the Church's mission to bring salvation to all.
3. To become peacemakers and extend fellowship to all God's people.
4. To answer to the call of personal and communal leadership.
5. To celebrate the universality and oneness of the Catholic Church.

Class Guidelines/Expectations

As a SSKCC high school student I will...

1. Show respect for God, my teachers, and my fellow classmates by not being disruptive.
2. Agree to engage and give my full attention during class activities, lectures, class/group discussions.
3. Be in class on time.
4. Be fully present by refraining from bringing food into class.
